

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

—Mr. and Mrs. John G. Mobley gave a reception to their daughters, the Misses Wright, on Christmas evening, at their home, La Grange. The occasion was a most delightful one. Dancing was kept up until late, and all of the guests were profuse in their expressions of the happy event at La Grange, which savors perhaps more of the ante-bellum days in hospitality than any home in the county.

—Our fellow townsman, H. C. Elliott, was deputized the other day to arrest a negro for disposing of property under mortgage. He had the man in custody, but went with him to his home to allow him to get a mule to ride. When the man got in his house he refused to come out and one of his friends stooped to pick up a gun, when Mr. Elliott, displaying discretion to be the better part of valor, left and came to town without his man.

—We clip the following from the Charleston World: Senator-elect Irby has appointed Osmond W. Buchanan, of Fairfield, his private secretary. Mr. Buchanan is a young lawyer, and one of the editors of the Farmers' Interest. He married a daughter of Congressman, Tillman, and took a prominent part in the reform movement. We congratulate our friend and neighbor on his appointment and believe he will fill the position acceptably.

—The Governor has appointed, and the Senate confirmed the following officers for this county: Hayne McMeekin, treasurer; J. B. Crosby, Auditor; W. F. Jackson, supervisor of registration; J. H. Neil, jury commissioner; trial justices: Hugh A. Stevenson, first district; J. D. Blair, second; J. S. Douglass, third; J. B. Stevenson, fourth; H. F. Boechel, fifth; J. H. Stewart, sixth; T. M. Cathcart, seventh; Luther Brazwell, eighth; R. A. Meares, ninth; A. G. Bookman, tenth; J. B. Steele, eleventh; Joseph McMeekin, twelfth; W. B. Hogan, thirteenth.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A DOUBLE MARRIAGE.

—Tuesday evening, December 23d, will be long remembered among the young folks of Longtown. One of the most beautiful and stylish marriage ceremonies was held at the residence of Mr. D. Y. Morgan. Mr. David Weir was married to Miss Susan L. Morgan, and at the same time and place Mr. R. B. Enandez was married to Miss Fannie Dove, all of Longtown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Wilson, of Ridge-way, in a most solemn and impressive manner. The brides were attired in an elegant costume of white; the bridesmaids were attired in rich but simple costumes; the groom and gentlemen in waiting wore hand-some evening dress suits. After the ceremony a royal wedding feast was spent at the hospitable home of Capt. D. Y. Morgan. It was greatly enjoyed by all.

HAPPENINGS AT BLACKSTOCK.
Quiet Xmas but Fair Business.—Mr. Danl. Stevenson Coming to Wino.—Changing Residences.—Rev. R. P. Smith at Home for the Holidays.—A Flourishing School and Successful Support for the Band.—Visitors.

Christmas passed off quietly. The merchants did a fair business, but the low price of cotton had its effect upon trade.

We are sorry to lose Mr. Danl. H. Stevenson and family from our town. They will remove to your town and take charge of the Winoboro Hotel on January 1st. What will be our loss will be your gain.

There will be considerable changing of residences about the first of the year. Dr. J. H. Allen will occupy the house vacated by Mr. D. H. Stevenson, Mr. T. B. McKeown will move to Mrs. Hicklin's house, Mr. D. A. Deitz will return to his own residence, the new Board of County Commissioners having elected Mr. Jones his successor as superintendent at the poor house. Mr. Thos. Walker has purchased the new house belonging to Mr. A. B. Douglass and will occupy it another year. Rev. C. E. Wiggins, the pastor of the Methodist Church at this place, will live another year in the house belonging to Mrs. N. E. Faulkner. Rev. R. P. Smith, pastor-elect of the Presbyterian Church, has arrived with his family and lives in the beautiful manse lately built by that congregation. He preached his first sermon at Concord Church on December 21. His installation will take place the third Sabbath in January at Concord Church.

Some of our young people have returned home to spend the holidays with relatives and friends, viz.: Arthur Cornwall, from the South Carolina University, James McCrorey from Furman University, James and Davidson Douglas from Davidson College, Fitz Cornwall from Chester and Lenoir R. R., Reuben McCrorey from Lancaster, where he has a position as telegraph operator. Mr. Fitz Buiks, from the Columbia Theological Seminary, is spending the holidays with Mr. W. Banks Thompson, his relation.

The Blackstock High School is closed for two weeks and the Principal, Prof. W. E. Mikell, will spend the time in Sumter, with relatives. The school is in a flourishing condition. Prof. Mikell has an efficient assistant, Miss Ella Blain.

The Blackstock Cornet Band gave an entertainment on Christmas night in the shape of a Christmas Tree. It was quite a success financially. The proceeds are for the benefit of the band.

Mr. Hugh T. Bruce and family expect soon to leave for Arkansas (Bradley County) where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Mary E. Kennedy, of Ridge-way, and her grand daughter, Miss Minnie Kennedy, are spending some time with Mr. Geo. L. Kennedy. Jimmie Craig, son of J. E. Craig, has accepted a position as clerk with the firm of L. S. Douglass & Co. for a short time during the busy season.

Cold Waves.
Are predicted with reliable accuracy, and people liable to the pains and aches of rheumatism dread every change to damp or stormy weather. Although Hood's Sarsaparilla is not claimed to be a positive specific for rheumatism, the remarkable cures it has effected show that it may be taken for this complaint with reasonable certainty of benefit. Its action in neutralizing the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of rheumatism, constitutes the secret of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you suffer from rheumatism, give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial; it will do you good.

DOTS FROM BUCKHEAD.

There was an entertainment at Baena Vista last night for the purpose of raising money to buy an organ for Salem Church. Notwithstanding the cold weather, a goodly number was present, and I believe a nice sum was realized for the purpose.

Our hearts were saddened at the result of the Senatorial contest. South Carolina owes more to Wade Hampton than to any other living man, and we hoped the desire for change might not reach this grand old hero, "sans peur, sans reproche," but that he might be spared to still further honor the old Palmetto State by his wise counsel.

Mrs. Poellnitz, Mrs. Meador and children, after a very pleasant sojourn among relatives, have returned to their homes in Alabama.

Mr. S. D. Goulette, of Greenville, is visiting his old home. His friends are rejoiced at his improvement in health. He brings glowing accounts of the many advantages in the "Mountain City" in healthfulness, business, educational and religious privileges.

Writing The News and Herald a happy Christmas, I will close.
December 20.
